

Deputy Under Secretary of the Army (Business Transformation) to Lead Panel at Annual Meeting and Exhibition of the Association of the United States Army (AUSA)

"We will not cement the transformational change of the Army until the institution reflects that change."

Chief of Staff, Army
19 June 2007

Mr. Michael Kirby, the Deputy Under Secretary of the Army for Business Transformation, will lead a results-oriented panel at the 2007 AUSA Convention: Business Transformation for an Expeditionary Army at War.

Mr. Kirby provides perspective on the importance of transformation to the Army's Executive leadership, and the necessity of adapting Army institutions to support our campaign-capable expeditionary force. Senior military leaders individually illustrate how Business Transformation delivers results across all organizations in the Army. Panelists discuss Lean Six Sigma, Organizational Analysis and Design planning and implementation, emerging concepts in Situational Awareness and the CIO function relative to Business Transformation.

Panel Members:

- Mr. Michael A. Kirby, Deputy Under Secretary of the Army (Business Transformation)
- LTG Robert Wilson, Assistant Chief of Staff for Installation Management/Commanding General, Installation Management Command
- LTG N. Ross Thompson III, Military Deputy/Director, Acquisition Career Management Office of the Assistant Secretary of the Army (Acquisition, Logistics and Technology)
- MG (P) Jeffrey A. Sorenson, Special Assistant to the Secretary of the Army

The Business Transformation panel is on Wednesday, October 10th, 9:00-11:00 AM at the Washington Convention Center in Room 150B. Participation is open to all convention attendees. For more information on Army Business Transformation go to: <http://www.army.mil/ArmyBTKC/>
